ABOUT MCED

Maharashtra Center for Entrepreneurship Development (MCED), hereafter termed as MCED, has its head office at Aurangabad. It is a body promoted by the Government of Maharashtra and jointly by SICOM, MSFC, MSSIDC, MIDC, and MELTRON & MITCON and is registered under Societies Registration Act 1860 and Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950

MCED is a Nodal Agency promoted by Government of Maharashtra as a joint venture of its state level industrial development corporation to conduct training activities related to Entrepreneurship Development. MCED conducts a variety of Training Programmes aimed at promoting Entrepreneurship across the state, catering to the training related needs of the society. To mention a few, programs like Entrepreneurship Development Programme, Skill Development Programmed, Skill Improvement Programmed, Faculty Development Programmed etc., constitute its core activities, which are popular and have been very useful to the people. To promote entrepreneurship on mass level, MCED conducts Awareness Programmed for students in educational institutions. It also publishes a monthly magazine "Udyojak" that is having the readership of about 25000 in the state. In an initiative to make quality IT education available to common man, MCED has created a network of around 500 centers in Maharashtra. At selected centers, the MSCIT course is also made available to cater to specific needs. Moreover, a dedicated team of persons covering cross section of entire disciplines drawn from state as well as national level are associated with MCED to help facilitate the cause of Entrepreneurship Development.
